At Kents Hill Infants Academy we aim to provide an exciting, stimulating, safe and secure environment where outstanding learning takes place. We are very much a family school. The ethos of the school is reflected in excellent relationships and in its purposeful and caring atmosphere. Parents, carers, staff and directors all contribute to our success. Our children make excellent progress and the school enjoys very high standards. We firmly believe that “every child matters” and we provide the highest quality learning opportunities for all our children.

We are seeking an enthusiastic SEN 1:1 Learning Support Assistant to join our dedicated and supportive team. The position will be working 1:1 with children in reception who have Autism, experience is desirable but not essential. As a SEN 1:1 Learning Support Assistant, you will play a fundamental role in fostering a nurturing and inclusive learning environment where every child can thrive.

The successful candidate will be required to work 9 hours per week, Monday to Thursday 13:00 pm to 15:15pm, and you will need to be able to follow a 'One Plan' under the guidance of the Class Teacher and SENCO.

We would be delighted to hear from you if you have:

- Strong literacy and numeracy skills, with GCSE English and Maths grades A-C (4 and above).
- Education to NVQ Level 2 in learning support or early years, or equivalent qualification or experience.
- Proven experience working with children in a school or early year setting.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, enabling you to effectively interact with both children and adults.
- The ability to overcome communication barriers and build rapport with individuals from diverse backgrounds.
- An understanding of the importance of social and emotional well-being and a commitment to nurturing a supportive and inclusive learning environment.
- Adaptability to work within a small, specialised team supporting children with diverse needs.
- Effective organisational and interpersonal skills, enabling you to manage tasks efficiently and collaborate effectively with colleagues.
- The ability to work independently and take initiative, taking pride in your work and consistently seeking opportunities to contribute to the team's success.
- The ability to remain calm under pressure and maintain composure in challenging situations.
- Have experience of working with ASD children or be willing to embrace continuous learning and professional development, actively seeking opportunities to enhance your skills and knowledge.

What We Offer You:

- The opportunity to join a growing Multi-Academy Trust of primary schools that collaborate closely for the benefit of all.
- Access to ongoing training empowering you to grow and excel in your role.
- The chance to work alongside a dynamic and collaborative team of classroom support, teachers, leaders, and a central team dedicated to the success of all pupils and staff alike.
- The privilege of working with engaged and enthusiastic pupils who are proud to belong to our school and enjoy learning in a stimulating environment.
- A comprehensive Employee Assistance Programme available to all employees, providing you with the support you need whenever you need it.
